

Center at the Mall is a community wellness center designed for adults over 50 who want to have fun, stay healthy and be active.

The center, located inside the Beaver Valley Mall, provides a social atmosphere where members can enjoy nutritional lunches, a state of the art fitness center, exercise classes, computer lab, a WiFi café, group trips, entertainment, holiday celebrations, and information on local services for older adults.

With over 9,000 members, Center at the Mall is the largest senior community center in Beaver County.

The center is managed by Lutheran Service Society, a nonprofit program of Lutheran Senior Life, and funded by the Beaver County Office on Aging, Pennsylvania Lottery and community sponsors.

Center at the Mall is a program of the Beaver County Office on Aging and is managed by Lutheran Service Society whose mission is to empower neighbors to lead independent, dignified and secure lives.

Lutheran Service Society is an affiliate of Lutheran SeniorLife, a premier provider of senior living communities, programs and services throughout southwestern Pennsylvania.

The Center is made possible with funding from the Beaver County Office on Aging, the Pennsylvania Lottery, fees from participants and donations from the community.
